- Legality Issues
We will notify and ask coaches to report to the Judge's Table, via text message, if there is a legality issue with their team's performance. In the event the text message doesn't reach the coach, the Emcee will make an announcement for a coach from the program to report to the Judges Table. Coaches will be asked to provide their cell phone number at registration the day of the event if they would like this service.

COACHES' PRE-EVENT CHECKLIST

✓ Legality Verification

If you have any safety guidelines or legality concerns, please submit your inquiry on video to rules@theepicbrands.com. For partner stunt or pyramid questions, you must submit a video/DVD that includes the mounting and dismounting of the stunt/pyramid. We MUST receive your inquiry/DVD at least 2 weeks prior to the competition to ensure you receive a timely response. If you are unsure, DO NOT just rely on your choreographer. Legalities will NOT be reviewed on the day of the competition

✓ Explain the “Sportsmanship Conduct Code” to the team and parents:

The Epic Brands promotes a fun, competitive, and fair environment. If any of our staff observes behavior from coaches, competitors or their fans detrimental to that environment, the following actions will be taken:

1. 1st offense – Warning
2. 2nd offense – 10 point deduction for offending team
3. 3rd offense – Disqualification of offending team

✓ THINGS TO DO BEFORE THE COMPETITION:

1. Mail in all outstanding payments and competition documents
2. Verify that your routine complies with all legality/safety rules
3. Check, double check, & triple check that your music works
4. Make multiple copies of your music
5. Download the tentative performance schedule – know when you can register and when you compete
6. Call in to The Epic Brands office if there are any weather related concerns
